INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING FORM FL-160

Property Declaration (form FL-160) is a multipurpose form, which may be filed with the court as an attachment to a Petition or Response or served on the other party to comply with disclosure requirements in place of a Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142). Courts may also require a party to file a Property Declaration as an attachment to a Request to Enter Default (form FL-165) or Judgment (form FL-180).

When filing a Property Declaration with the court, do not include private financial documents listed below.

Identify the type of declaration completed

- 1. Check "Community and Quasi-Community Property Declaration" on page 1 to use Property Declaration (form FL-160) to provide a combined list of community and quasi-community property assets and debts. Quasi-community property is property you own outside of California that would be community property if it were located in California.
- Do not combine a separate property declaration with a community and quasi-community property declaration. Check "Separate Property Declaration" on page 1 when using Property Declaration to provide a list of separate property assets and debts.

Description of the Property Declaration chart

Pages 1 and 2

- 1. Column A is used to provide a brief description of each item of separate or community or quasi-community property.
- 2. Column B is used to list the date the item was acquired.
- 3. Column C is used to list the item's gross fair market value (an estimate of the amount of money you could get if you sold the item to another person through an advertisement).
- 4. Column D is used to list the amount owed on the item.
- 5. Column E is used to indicate the net fair market value of each item. The net fair market value is calculated by subtracting the dollar amount in column D from the amount in column C ("C minus D").
- 6. Column F is used to show a proposal on how to divide (or confirm) the item described in column A. Page 3
- 1. Column A is used to provide a brief description of each separate or community or quasi-community property debt.
- Column B is used to list the date the debt was acquired.
- 3. Column C is used to list the total amount of money owed on the debt.
- 4. Column D is used to show a proposal on how to divide (or confirm) the item of debt described in column A.

When using this form only as an attachment to a Petition or Response

- 1. Attach a Separate Property Declaration (form FL-160) to respond to item 9. Only columns A and F on pages 1 and 2 and columns A and D on page 3 are required.
- 2. Attach a Community or Quasi-Community Declaration (form FL-160) to respond to item 10, and complete column A on all pages.

When serving this form on the other party as an attachment to Declaration of Disclosure (form FL-140)

- 1. Complete columns A through E on pages 1 and 2, and columns A through C on page 3.
- Copies of the following documents must be attached and served on the other party:
  - (a) For real estate (item 1): deeds with legal descriptions and the latest lender's statement.
  - (b) For vehicles, boats, trailers (item 4): the title documents.
  - (c) For all bank accounts (item 5, 6, 7): the latest statement.
  - (d) For life insurance policies with cash surrender or loan value (item 10): the latest declaration page.
  - (e) For stocks, bonds, secured notes, mutual funds (item 11): the certificate or latest statement.
  - (f) For retirement and pensions (item 12): the latest summary plan document and latest benefit statement.
  - (g) For profit-sharing, IRAs, deferred compensation, and annuities (item 13): the latest statement.
  - (h) For each account receivable and unsecured note (item 14): documentation of the account receivable or note.
  - (i) For partnerships and other business interests (item 15): the most current K-1 and Schedule C.
  - (j) For other assets (item 16): the most current statement, title document, or declaration.
  - (k) For support arrearages (item 21): orders and statements.
  - (I) For credit cards and other debts (items 23 and 24): the latest statement.
- 3. Do not file copies of the above private financial documents with the court.

When filing this form with the court as an attachment to Request to Enter Default (FL-165) or Judgment (FL-180) Complete all columns on the form.
